

2021-2022 ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

THE NPAIT BOARD MET ON MAY 13, 2021 AND SELECTED THE FOLLOWING TWO WINNERS AND AN ALTERNATE:

CLAIRE LINDSAY

Claire Lindsay is from Wayne, NE and a senior at Wayne High School. She is the daughter of Lisa Lindsay, who is the Deputy Treasurer in Wayne County. Claire's awards and involvement throughout high school included Student Government, Concert, Marching and Pep Bands, High Ability Learners Program, FBLA, FCCLA, Yearbook, Principal-Student Advisory Committee, National Honors Society and St. Mary's Youth Group. In the essay for the NPAIT Scholarship application titled "The Importance of County Government in Nebraska," she states that "the foundational motivation for local government was and is a genuine desire to assist and be connected with local people, providing them with specific, individualized attention and services." After graduating from Wayne High School, Claire plans to attend Creighton University and major in Pre-med Biology.

ANNA YOUELL

Anna Youell is from Omaha and a senior at Mercy High School. Anna's father is Gregory Youell, Executive Director of Metropolitan Area Planning Agency (MAPA). Anna's high school activities included Track, Show Choir, Church Youth Group, Divina Prayer, Future Business Leaders of America, Pro Life Club, Cross Country, National Honors Society, Creighton Leadership Seminar, Sophomore Talent Show, Volleyball, Theatre and Golden Girls Pep Club, from which she received numerous honors and awards. In Anna's essay she stated "I am excited for the future of Omaha and whether or not I pursue a career in local government, I plan to remain involved as an active participant in my community." Her plan after graduating from Mercy High School is to pursue a degree in Secondary Education from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

ALTERNATE: CIARA STUEVE

Ciara Stueve is from Bellevue, NE and a senior at Bellevue East High School. Her parents Bradley and Sara Stueve are both employed by Bellevue Public Schools. While attending Bellevue East High School, she was involved in DECA, Drama Club, Student Government, Art Club, Swim Team, National Honors Society, Key Club, Latin Club, FBLA and Theatre. After losing a close friend to cancer, she planned a year-long fundraiser that involved staff and students to raise money for the No Stomach for Cancer Organization. Ciara plans to attend the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and study Emerging Media Arts.
